

Dear FCC:Satellite radio is a technology that is a long-time coming. I have had it for nearly a year now and enjoy it. The NAB has no business interfering with it. Competing companies is what makes our economy great. Do not not stop weather and traffic news on the radio for satellite listeners.